

Aspen Young Leaders Program 2024

Call for Applications!

FOUR-DAY INTENSIVE SEMINARS
FOR YOUNG PROFESSIONALS FROM CENTRAL EUROPE

22 - 25 August 2024
Czech Republic

The Aspen Young Leaders Program (AYLP) offers emerging young leaders the opportunity to enhance their personal and professional skills, as well as to expand their network in the region. The uniqueness of the program lies in its strong emphasis on the quality and diversity of both speakers and participants. It provides a safe, unique, and inspirational environment for networking and discussion.

- AYLP allows leaders to meet across various fields to discover new perspectives on nowadays challenges through dialogue and open discussions.
- The key focus is on Values-based Leadership and reflection on various aspects of leadership.
- Graduates become part of an international AYLP Alumni community whose goal is to support professional connections and development.

You will meet excellent and experienced speakers from broad variety of fields as Danuše Nerudová, Andrej Kiska, Zuzanna Rudzińska-Bluszcz, Jan Lukačevič, Adam Ondra, or Veronika Munk, and many others in the last editions.

Call for applications

Key criteria:

- Aged approx. 22-35, and of Czech, Hungarian, Polish, or Slovak nationality; or a long-term resident living and acting in Central Europe
- Fluent in English
- Professionally active in politics, business, media, the arts, sports, science, or the nonprofit sector

We accept your Applications till 14th April 2024!

#aylp

