

CHARLES UNIVERSITY
Second Faculty of Medicine

Application for Exemption from Entrance examination

Last name: First name:

Address:

Email:

Please tick the conditions that apply:

- Results in the A-level test – Physics or Mathematics, Chemistry and Biology:
Rating at least: A, A, A
The test must not be taken before the academic year 2021/2022.
- International Baccalaureate (IB) results from three subjects (two of which must be HL Chemistry and HL Biology), HL or SL Physics or HL or SL Mathematics with a total of 19. The total score in IB must be at least 35. The test must not be taken before the academic year 2021/2022.
- Advance placement or comparable test (e.g. SAT) in Biology and either Mathematics, Physics or Chemistry. Overall: at least 75th percentile.
The test must not be taken before the academic year 2021/2022.
- Grade point average for matriculation (“Abitur”) subjects concerning applicants studying at secondary schools in Germany/Austria equal or less than 1.30; in Switzerland equal or more than 5.50; and in Norway equal or more than 5 Norwegian Grade points in Biology, Chemistry, Physics or Mathematics.
The applicant must not have graduated from high school before the academic year 2021/2022.

To be considered for the Exemption from Entrance examination applicant must:

Upload this application together with IB predicted grades, AP results, your latest grades or high school diploma to the online application, and pay the application fee 880 CZK by April 30th 2024.

Applicants will be notified by May 3rd 2024 whether the entrance examination was waived or not waived. If the examination was waived, the applicant will be accepted to the programme. If the examination was not waived, the applicant will be able to choose entrance examination in Prague on May 29th or June 25th or with various agencies abroad.

Date:

Signature: